DESCRIPTION

The Lasian range brings a refined blend of soft sculptural forms and warm metallic accents, crafted from durable iron paired with elegantly molded resin shades. Available as table lamps, floor lamps, and pendants, each piece features a gently fluted resin diffuser that creates a warm, ambient glow and adds a subtle decorative texture. The slim stems and antique-gold detailing give the collection a contemporary, mid-century-inspired look, while the resin shades introduce a modern, lightweight feel. Together, the lamps and pendants offer a cohesive, stylish lighting family suited to living spaces, bedrooms, and open-plan interiors.
