DESCRIPTION

The Pyrus Bollard is a sleek and modern outdoor lighting solution crafted from durable polycarbonate with a refined sand finish. It features an integrated LED that emits a warm 3000K glow, perfect for creating a welcoming ambiance in garden paths, driveways, or landscaped areas. With its IP65 rating, the Pyrus is built to withstand the elements, offering both style and resilience.

Whether you're lighting a serene garden walkway or framing the entrance to your outdoor haven, the Pyrus brings a soft, comforting light that enhances the beauty and safety of your space. It's not just lighting—it's a subtle touch of elegance for your outdoors.
